

The PrimA timetable of events

May	Attending the information session Individual advice on the timing of the placement
June	Assistance in preparing the application Advice on study design and financing the placement
September	Assigning the placement; joint meetings and events with returnees Assistance in contacting the school in England or Wales
October	Start of the preparatory part of the module including intercultural training and development of teaching skills Individual advice to BAFÖG, scholarships, arranging leave of absence
November	Individual advice on study projects Participation in the pre-survey
December	Individual consultation on organizational and academic issues Consultation events with International Office and Central counselling for students
January	Individual consultation on organizational issues Travel arrangements and finding accommodation
February	Preparing for practicalities of life in British schools Completion of the preparatory module
April/May	Beginning of the phase abroad: placement in an English or Welsh school Blended learning tasks (task analysis, lesson planning)
June	BUW tutor visits the students on placement and discusses their experiences, prospects, development and their study projects
July	Blended learning tasks with the home university (material design, assessment of pupils' work, self-assessment)
August	Reflection on the stay abroad, individual advice on academic performance and crediting Participation in the post-surveys
September	Meetings and presentations with students taking part in the next round of placements Presentation of the results of students' study projects Completion of the module